

Dear Students,

Hoping that you will be fine in this hard time of pandemic. Keeping in view these extraordinary situations and government directions, AIOU has decided to offer you examination in the form of end-term assessment (ETA). You are required to strictly follow the guidelines, which are:

1. Please read the instructions very carefully before attempting the end-term assessment. It is different from traditional paper-pencil tests or assignments.
2. Attempt all four questions. All questions carry equal marks (25 marks).
3. Your answers must be concise and relevant.
4. Only handwritten submissions will be accepted. Typed responses will not be entertained. The submissions written in different handwritings will not be entertained. Your handwriting will be matched with the previous papers.
5. You can use any open access educational resource to write your answer in addition to material provided by AIOU, but don't forget to refer the source. Also, give a reference list at the end of each question.
6. You are advised to send your solved ETA through registered / courier mail to your concerned destination. Please keep the registry / courier receipt with you for future Correspondence. By-hand submission will not be accepted.
